

I strongly oppose the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) challenge of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law in a proceeding before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). The federal "established business relationship" exemption should not be imposed on Indiana consumers. My telephone is for my own use and not for telemarketing use.